

The New York Board of Rabbis
is pleased to offer the following training to our members:

Pastoral Crisis Intervention A Two Day Workshop – April 22-23, 2009

The purpose of this two day intensive workshop is to assist NYBR members in learning how pastoral interventions and traditional psychological crisis interventions may be effectively integrated. The course curriculum is — taught internationally under the auspices of ICISF (International Critical Incident Stress Foundation - www.ICISF.org).

Congregational rabbis, full and part time chaplains, pastoral counselors, rabbinic educators, and rabbis serving in other functions should find this course extremely valuable. The skills learned (see below) are directly applicable to crisis situations which may arise within congregational settings, schools, camps, organizations, chaplaincy settings and larger communal disasters.

- Nature of psychological crisis
- Crisis Intervention
- Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM)
- Applications of pastoral crisis intervention
- Pastoral crisis assessment: The "crisis of faith"
- Psychological triaging
- Common psychological reactions
- Mechanisms of pastoral crisis intervention
- The role of religion
- Mechanisms of traditional crisis intervention
- Indications and contraindications
- Practice in pastoral crisis intervention
- Most challenging applications
- Common problems encountered in pastoral crisis intervention

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR —

Rev. Julie Taylor, CTR, is the Executive Director of Disaster Chaplaincy Services and an ICISF approved instructor.

Cost for this two day course is only $180.

(The normal cost of the course is $375.)

The NYBR is significantly underwriting this course.)

To register email Rabbi Stephen Roberts: Sroberts@NYBR.ORG.

SPACE IS LIMITED! REGISTER EARLY!

